Degrees and Certificates

The three baccalaureate degrees granted by Fairmont State College are Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Arts, and Bachelor of Arts in Education. For each of these three degrees a minimum of 128 semester hours of credit is required. An Associate of Arts, Associate of Applied Science, or Associate of Science degree is also granted upon successful completion of from 64-74 semester hours in the two-year curricula. A Certificate in Applied Science is offered in three areas upon completion of 32-34 semester hours. This College also offers a flexible non-traditional Regents Bachelor of Arts Degree Program.

PROGRAM ADDITIONS

INTERIOR DECORATION

(Associate in Applied Science)

This program is designed for the student who may wish to seek employment as an assistant to an interior decorator or designer; or be employed by retail stores as a consultant to consumers for furniture, draperies, carpeting, floor coverings, or as a coordinator for all interior decorating. This may also be in the housewares areas for implementation of homemaking to make it more aesthetically pleasing and enjoyable. The student may desire to be self-employed. Opportunities in this area are increasing. Successful decorating studios operate in many areas and there exists a need for more in this region.

COURSES OF INSTRUCTION

PROFESSIONAL EDUCATION

311. Behavior Disorders three hours

An in-depth investigation of the field of behavior disorders. Emphasis is placed on characteristics, etiology, history, educational strategies, current research, auxiliary agencies and educational assessment of children who are emotionally disturbed. A laboratory experience assists students in synthesizing the course content. PR: Education 220 or consent of the division head.

314. The Gifted and Talented three hours

A survey of the field of educational opportunities for the gifted and talented. Emphasis will be on characteristics of the children, identification and assessment techniques, current research and issues in the field, as well as educational strategies involving school personnel, parental, professional, and governmental agency involvement with the programs. PR: Education 220 or consent of the division head.

317. Specific Learning Disabilities three hours

An overview of the field of Specific Learning Disabilities. It analyzes the definition, characteristics and causes of specific learning disabilities. Emphasis is placed on learning development, specific legislation, programs, contemporary issues, and agencies relating to specific learning disabilities. A laboratory experience assists the student in synthesizing the content of the course. PR: Education 200 or consent of the division head.

HOME ECONOMICS

140. Introduction to Interior Decoration three hours

A survey of different career possibilities in the field of interior design. The role of the decorator in furniture stores, department stores, decorator studios, and independent operations is developed.

*Effective fall 1978, pending approval by Faculty Senate.

275. Practicum four hours
Training in retail interior decorating service working under supervision.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

SPECIAL EXAMINATIONS FOR COURSE CREDIT, p. 25

Delete the first four paragraphs under this section and add the following as the first paragraph:

Students may earn course credit by special examination. To apply for permission for such an examination, the applicant must be enrolled in the college or must have completed one semester or summer session in Fairmont State College. The applicant must first schedule an interview with the division chairman or department representative who will evaluate the student's background, experience, and qualifications to establish eligibility and give permission for taking the examination. In order to gain college credit by special examination, the student must demonstrate better than average proficiency on the examination, as determined by the examiner. Examinations will not be given for college courses in which the student has previously received a grade other than "W" or "WP".

GENERAL STUDIES REQUIREMENTS FOR THE B.A. AND B.S. DEGREES, p.44

Add the following footnote which is applicable to the one-hour Physical Education requirements:
"This requirement may be waived by the Office of the Registrar for a student who because of physical disability or infirmity cannot perform the Basic Activity Course. The student must furnish appropriate medical substantiation of the disability or infirmity."

GENERAL STUDIES REQUIREMENTS FOR THE B.A. AND B.S. DEGREES, p. 45

Add the following footnote following the General Studies Requirements: "*Math 101 and Math 102 cannot be used to satisfy General Studies requirements."

GRADING SYSTEM, p. 38

Add the following after "I": "A temporary mark, given only when the student has completed most of the course, but is unable to conclude it because of illness or some other unavoidable circumstance."

Add the following as the third paragraph: "In order to begin the clinical year of the MLT Program, a student must have an overall quality point average of 2.0 plus an overall 2.0 average in the following clinically related subjects: MLT 101 and 102, Chemistry 101 and 102 and Biology 170 (Anatomy and Physiology) and 205 (Technical Microbiology).

Failure to attain this average results in dismissal from the program. Readmission is on the basis of reapplication and reacceptance."

MEDICAL RECORDS TECHNOLOGY, pp. 99-100

Change program hours from 64 to 67 semester hours.

Add under "Required Courses" after Speech 101:

Biology 170 Anatomy and Physiology.....3

MEDICAL RECORDS TECHNOLOGY, p. 99

Change this degree designation from "Associate in Science" to "Associate in Applied Science" and change the program description to the following:

The Medical Record Technician program is designed to provide the graduate with skills necessary for preparing, analyzing and preserving health information needed by health practitioners, patients, hospitals, and the public. In addition to the classroom studies, the student spends a designated time at affiliated clinical sites, i.e, hospitals, clinics, and extended care facilities, in order to practice the technical skills. This rotation is planned for one semester during the first year and the entire second year. Upon satisfactory completion of the two-year program, the student will have a knowledge of medical terminology, secretarial skills, disease classification and indexing skills required to function in any health care agency maintaining medical records.

* MEDICAL SECRETARIAL, p. 113

Delete Biology 102 and add the following:

VETERANS BENEFITS: STANDARDS FOR SATISFACTORY PROGRESS

The following policies and procedures will be conducted by Fairmont State College for the purpose of determining satisfactory progress for all students receiving veterans benefits and the Veterans Administration will be notified under the policy of any veteran not maintaining satisfactory progress.

I. PROBATION OR SUSPENSION

The Veterans Administration will be notified immediately at the end of the semester when a student receiving veterans benefits is either suspended or placed on academic probation by Fairmont State College. It is the responsibility of the Office of the Assistant to the Academic Vice-President to supply the Veterans Coordinator with a list of students suspended or placed on academic probation. This list will serve as the basis for notification to the Veterans Administration.

II. CLASS ATTENDANCE

Individual class attendance by all students receiving veterans benefits will be maintained and the Veterans Administration will be notified immediately when a student's absence from class is interfering with satisfactory progress in that class. The following procedure will be used in collecting attendance information:

1. All instructors will be provided with a list of students receiving veterans benefits.
2. A letter to each instructor will accompany the list of veterans requesting that the instructor notify the Veterans Coordinator immediately if any student on the list has absences in their class to the extent that the absences are interfering with satisfactory progress.

3. The Veterans Coordinator will notify the Veterans Administration immediately that the veteran is not making satisfactory progress in specific classes because of irregular attendance.

If a student receiving veterans benefits withdraws from college or an individual class and the Veterans Coordinator has no prior notice of irregular class attendance, the official withdrawal date on the withdrawal form completed in the Registrar's Office will be assumed as the last date of class attendance.

III. FINAL GRADE FOR ALL COURSES ATTEMPTED

The final grade policy for all courses attempted applies to all students at Fairmont State College, including those receiving veterans benefits.

IV. MIDTERM REVIEW OF VETERANS' PROGRESS

The Veterans Coordinator will review the mid-term grade report for all students receiving veterans benefits and the Veterans Administration will be notified of any irregularities or indication of lack of progress on the mid-term grade report.

SUMMARY

As indicated above, students receiving veterans benefits are subject to all institutional policies of grading, attendance, and withdrawal. It is the responsibility of the Fairmont State College Veterans Coordinator to administer the procedures listed above and notify the Veterans Administration in every instance indicating lack of satisfactory progress by the student receiving veterans benefits. There will be no separate policies of attendance, withdrawal, or grade average calculation for students receiving
